FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

LOCAL PHOTOGRAPHER LISTED AS BEST NEW TALENT

Jennifer Squires, London modern fine art photographer, has been recently named on the list of Photo Life magazine's 2009 Emerging Photographers.

Squires has been photographing professionally since 1996, but has been taking pictures her whole life. After graduating from Fanshawe College with two diplomas, one in photography and one in advanced photography, she began working as a producer and first assistant at an advertising studio in Toronto.

In 2005 Squires returned to London to pursue freelance work and teach in the advanced photography program at her alma mater. Now her focus is on selling modern fine art photographs through her online shop, which she opened in February 2008. Her work can be viewed at www.jennifersquires.ca and is available for sale via Etsy at www.jennifersquires.etsy.com.

Photo Life, Canada's bimonthly photography magazine, annually publishes a selection of images from the best emerging Canadian photographers who "will shape tomorrow's photography". This year's list can be found in the September 2009 issue of Photo Life magazine.
